

You Knew What Was to Come

Intro: C#m A C#m A

V1: C#m

A

Even as the people cheered around you

E B

You could see the road ahead.

C#m A

Lord you knew that you must face the cross

E B

And take rejection in my place

A E B

You'd face death for me—your enemy

A E B

Yes, you'd face death for me

Ch1: E B C#m A

You saw, the burden, that I could, not carry

E B C#m A

Your love, so great, that you would bear the weight of my sin

C#m A C#m A

You knew what was to come . . .

V2: C#m

A

Standing there before the table

E B

You gave the symbols of your love

C#m A

The wine your blood the bread your body

E B

Yes you knew what was to come

A E B

You'd face death for me—your enemy

A E B

Yes, you'd face death for me

Ch. 2: E B C#m A

You saw, my freedom, and your joy, unending

E B C#m A

Your love, so great, that you would bear the weight of my sin

C#m A C#m A

You knew what was to come . . .